

BURLINGTON FREE PRESS, FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 14, 1854.

Religious Intelligence.

Revivals have recently occurred in Elbridge, N. Y., in Manchua, Mass., and in Danbury, Deep River, Steep, Bridgeport, Plainville, Wethersfield, Essex, Lynn and Waterford, Conn., also in Lane Seminary and several places in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Rev. G. W. Noyes was dismissed from the pastoral charge of the Congregational church in Cornishville, Vt., by an Ecclesiastical council convened at that place on the 13th ult.

Rev. James Matchay, rector of St. Stephen's Church, in Middlebury, Vt., for the last four years and a half, has resigned his charge, and accepted a call from Christ Church, Troy, N. Y.

Two Second Advent elders from Boston have been holding a series of meetings in Middlebury, in which place the Register says they have "several followers."

The discussion between Rev. Thomas Sawyer and Rev. Isaac Westcott on the question "Do the Scriptures teach the final salvation of all men?" has had a great influence in the Broadway Tabernacle, N. Y., during the past week and excited much interest, the audience numbering not less than three thousand persons.

The Boston Concord says on the morning of Thursday, which was Fast Day in Massachusetts, "To-day theoretically the Commonwealth will be in sackcloth and ashes; practically, for the most part, in the volume exercise of horse-dash and games of ball."

There is Church provision in this country according to the last census for each four hundred and twenty persons able to attend. The whole number of churches is 38,061. Of which number 13,280 are Methodist, 7,240 Baptist, 1,224 Presbyterians, 2,221 Catholic, Five-fifths of the Churches are of the Protestant faith. About 1 in 12 of the American people and about 1 in 10 of the whole population are Roman Catholics.

The proportion of clergymen to the whole population in Upper Canada is about to 570, whereas in Lower Canada it is only one to 1,190. The Church of England is rapidly losing ground relatively. From 1842 to 1851 it increased 23 per cent, while the Church of Rome increased 11,612; the Baptists 13; the Presbyterians 57,235, and the Methodists 600 per cent.

Whittier, speaking of Heaven says—

"We naturally enough transfer to our idea of Heaven whatever we have and reverence on earth. Thither the Catholic carries his family, the Methodist his soul, the Dissenter his portion of his works. There the Methodist sees his love feasts and camp-meetings, in the groves and by the still waters and green pastures of the Blessed Abode. The Quaker, in the stillness of his self-communion, remembers his friends in the vale of Heaven. The Christian, listening to solemn chimes of organ music, or the deep tones of the organ, thinks of the song of the Elders, and the golden harps of the New Jerusalem."

The Heaven of the Northern nations of Europe was a glorious picture of the earthly life of a nation of barbarous and semi-barbarous peoples, and put up by
